Late Summer Sun, by Nik Harron

St Andrew's Current COVID Status

THE PARISH IS OPEN. At its meeting on 16 May, the vestry decided, in accordance with the May guidance from the CDC and at the recommendation of the priest-in-charge and the wardens, to more fully open the parish for worship. In light of revised guidance from the CDC and the current surge being caused by the Delta variant, our worship protocols have now been slightly updated as follows:

- We are asking *everyone to wear a mask, regardless of vaccination status. The variant is highly transmissible, even by people who are fully vaccinated, and according to the CDC, Litchfield County's level of community transmission is now Substantial (or higher)
- Congregational singing has now resumed, at the 10:30 service only

In addition, it is no longer necessary to sign-up in advance to attend worship, but we will record the names of those who attend, in case contact tracing becomes necessary.

We will continue to livestream our 10:30 liturgy on Sundays and our mid-week services, as there are parishioners who are choosing not to be in group settings at this time—a decision the parish fully honors and supports.

From Randy DiPentima, Junior Warden

It used to be that summer dragged on forever. That is, as a child, I thought that August would never end, and school would never start. Now, summer flies by in the blink of an eye. For instance, it seems that just last week Fr. Douglas viewed his first Kent Memorial Day parade and in a little over a week, it is Labor Day. Our glorious tag sale, my 50th high school reunion, not to mention the wild weather we've either experienced or been persuaded we would experience but didn't, all contributed to an especially quick August. It is exciting to think that on the 3rd Sunday in September we will be celebrating together as a parish community - catching up with those we haven't seen for over a year, meeting members we've never met before and welcoming new members.

At the end of July, I met a college friend in Boston, and we walked around the Boston Common. The cathedral church of St. Paul for the Diocese of Massachusetts faces the Boston Common on Tremont Street. Walking by it on Saturday afternoon, I noticed the familiar sign for the Episcopal Church welcoming all. But then, just in front of the cathedral steps was a gate and a sign saying, "Church closed - No trespassing - Police take notice." There was also a sign that read "Hate has no home here." I was dismayed by the inconsistent messages. Fortunately, the next day, Sunday morning, the gate was gone, a sign announcing the church was open was up and the doors were wide open to reveal the celebrants preparing for the Eucharist.

I am thankful that our church welcomes all, as so eloquently stated every week in our prayers of the people; that we open our doors to, weekend visitors, longtime local residents, newly arrived residents, weekenders and day trippers, not to mention AT hikers. Our parish is filled with people whose daily lives are markedly different from each other, who have different sources and levels of income and different levels of schooling, who may not always agree on national or even local issues. Despite those differences, we are united in the worship and love of God. This is a blessing we should cherish and nurture.

Fr Douglas on Vacation

Father Douglas will be away on vacation from Friday, 27 August, through Friday, 17 September. He will be checking email only infrequently while he's gone. If you have an urgent pastoral need, please call the rectory line (860-592-0171) and leave him a message. If there is something KC Compton, our parish administrator, can help you with, she will be keeping her regular hours: Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10:00 – 2:00. KC's email address is office.sa.kent@gmail.com.

Next Friday: The Sherman Chamber Ensemble at St Andrew's

We are privileged to host one of the Sherman Chamber Ensemble's Labor Day weekend concerts. Here is information from their press release:

The Sherman Chamber Ensemble's Summertime Sounds classical music series concludes on Labor Day weekend as it celebrates The Old and the New on Friday, September 3, at St Andrew's Church, 1 No. Main Street, Kent, and Saturday, September 4, at Christ Church on Quaker Hill, 17 Church Road, Pawling, NY. Both concerts are at 7 p.m.

The Old and the New is an ambitious program highlighting current composers as well as favorites like Johannes Brahms. Pianist Margaret Kampmeier joins Susan Rotholz (flute), Paul Woodiel (violin), Michael Roth (violin), Sarah Adams (viola), and Eliot Bailen (cello).

Works include Carlos Simon's Piano Trio, Andrew Norman's Light Screen Flute Quartet and Johannes Brahms' Piano Quintet in F Minor.

Simon is a native of Atlanta, Georgia whose music ranges from concert music for large and small ensembles to film scores with influences of jazz, gospel, and neo-romanticism. He was named as one of the recipients of the 2021 Sphinx Medal of Excellence, the highest honor bestowed by the Sphinx Organization, recognizing extraordinary classical Black and Latinx musicians.

Norman is a composer, educator, and advocate for the music of others. Recently praised as "the leading American composer of his generation" by the Los Angeles Times, and "one of the most gifted and respected composers of his generation" by the New York Times, he has established himself as a significant voice in American classical music. Upcoming engagements include a year as Carnegie Hall's Debs Composer's Chair (2020/2021), the premiere of his violin concerto with Leila Josefowicz and the Los Angeles Philharmonic, and an American tour with Kiril Petrenko and the Berlin Philharmonic.

The concerts will take place indoors and follow CDC and State Covid guidelines for social distancing and rules for events and programs. Face masks are requested for all.

SAVE THE DATE: Welcome Home Sunday, 19 September

It is always a good feeling when we re-gather after a summer season that's taken many of us in so many different directions and at different times. And this year, that celebration will be greater than ever, as we also continue to emerge from the constraints of COVID and return to living together in community once more.

We're planning a wonderful homecoming celebration on Sunday, 19 September, at 10:30, with hospitality and plenty of time for catching up afterwards. Please save the date, and look for many more details to follow!

ECCT Bishop Transition Committee Announces Many Listening Sessions

As you may be aware, Bp Ian Douglas has announced his plans to retire in October 2022. A diocesan Bishop Transition Committee (BTC) has been appointed and begun its work. They recently announced a series of listening sessions where people from across the diocese can provide their perspectives to the Committee:

The process of discerning who God is calling to be our next Bishop Diocesan begins with each of us. Our bishop will be part of our community, and their role grows out of the distinctive qualities which make up the Episcopal Church in Connecticut.

The Discernment Subcommittee will be holding sixteen listening sessions via Zoom from August 30—September 23. These sessions are designed to encourage us to share from our own unique context and experiences. We will gather together to pray, share, and discern together our current strengths and areas of growth as ECCT, as well as where we sense God inviting us next. These holy conversations will then form the backbone of our Bishop Profile, which will be developed in partnership with the Profile Subcommittee.

The Discernment Subcommittee is committed to ensuring these Listening Sessions are safe spaces where you will feel free to share openly about your experiences in ECCT, the wider Episcopal Church, and our world. Any information from these sessions utilized in the final Profile or other BTC communications will remain anonymous.

We look forward to our time together as we pray, listen, share, and discern God's calling as we search for our XVI Bishop Diocesan. Learn more and register.

Note: St Andrew's is in the Northwest Region, but parishioners have been invited to attend any regional listening session that is convenient.

HOSPITALITY AT ST ANDREW'S: Looking for Volunteers

Following an outstanding run by Bernadette Ellegard and her crew (thank you, one and all!), we are pleased to announce that Katherine Almquist has agreed to become the new chair of the Hospitality Commission. We are so grateful for Katherine's willingness to take on this work, and we know St Andrew's tradition of wonderful parish events will continue.

Katherine is looking for volunteers to help her, beginning with our first event of the new church year: an all-parish reception following the 10:30 service on Welcome Home Sunday, 19 September. You do not need to be a chef! There are jobs available for all skill levels and interests. If you are willing to help, please contact Katherine at kt_almquist@hotmail.com.

THE MISSIONS WE SUPPORT: Integrated Refugee and Immigrant Services

Perhaps you would like to know more about the charities and agencies that St Andrew's helps fund? Perhaps you might even want to get involved with one of them? Well, we will be highlighting some of the charities and agencies that our parish supports via the Mission & Outreach Commission. This week, we feature Integrated Refugee and Immigrant Services of Connecticut, a New Haven-based agency whose mission is to help refugees and other displaced people establish new lives, strengthen hope, and contribute to the vitality of Connecticut's communities. Here is more from their website:

"Refugee families who arrive from overseas come to the U.S. with virtually no material possessions. They have lost homes, friends, family, country, culture, and jobs. Most do not speak any English. They have no income, and many are victims of trauma, with physical or mental health needs. As great as their initial needs are, their potential to enrich our community is even greater.

"Asylum seekers, asylees, and other immigrant families who seek assistance stabilizing their family situation often have many of the same needs as refugees coming from overseas. However, since they are already in the U.S., it is often the case that they have some limited resources or extended support network that can be built upon with the help of IRIS.

"IRIS provides targeted wrap-around services for all clients, using a strength-based assessment model, that offers long-term support for successful integration."

The services IRIS provides include basic needs (shelter and furnishings); case management (integration into the local community); health and wellness support; employment assistance; additional education; immigration legal services; education and youth services; English-language instruction; and services for undocumented neighbors.

To learn more about IRIS, you can visit their website.

All Recovery Meetings Are Resuming

As the parish has re-opened, all recovery groups (AA and AI Anon) have been invited to resume their meetings. Please check with their organizers or the parish office for details.

Computer Help is Available

If you or someone you know is having difficulty accessing our online services, the weekly E-pistle or our web site ... or who would like to participate in our Zoom offerings but don't know how ... please let Fr Douglas or KC know. We have parishioners who are willing to help you and also make sure your equipment and internet connection are working properly. We don't want anyone to miss an opportunity to be part of the life of St Andrew's!
