From The Reverend Douglas Worthington

Dear people of St Andrew's Parish,

Late last week, as I was making my 'morning rounds' about the property, I finally saw the large wicker basket of food donations for the Kent Food Bank sitting at the far end of the church narthex. That prompted me to introduce myself to Leah Pullaro, who is the director of social services for the Town of Kent. Leah confirmed that the Food Bank continues to accept donations during these constrained times. In fact, there are now forty-three families visiting the Food Bank every week-far more than usual. Leah also mentioned that St Andrew's has long been an important partner in the Food Bank's mission, and she looks forward to continuing our partnership.

I'd like to invite all of us to continue the parish's practice of bringing donations for the Food Bank to church on the first Sunday of every month. If you don't feel comfortable coming to worship in-person, that's perfectly fine: You may leave your donation in the breezeway that connects the rectory to the garage. I will box up our monthly donations and deliver them to the Community House the following Thursday when volunteers gather to pack bags for clients to pick up the next day.

Leah mentioned they are especially hoping to stock up on canned protein (such as tuna, chicken, etc) and canned meals (such as beef stew, ravioli, etc) as a hedge against what could be a very demanding winter season, given the precarious state of the economy for many low-income workers.

So, please consider putting the Food Bank on your regular grocery shopping list and bring your donations to the church on the first Sunday of each month (or the rectory anytime during the first week of the month). As we are fed spiritually by our journey together in Christ, so let us feed others in the spirit of love and charity we learn from Him.

May God continue to bless our parish.

In the peace and love of Christ,
Douglas

New Book Study to Begin on Monday, 14-September

We will begin a Monday evening book discussion group, via Zoom (or telephone, if you prefer), on 14-September, from 7:15 - 8:30 (we'll start with 15 minutes of social time, since we don't get to see one another very much). Former Archbishop of Canterbury Rowan Williams has written a series of three books that explore our existence as creatures of God (Being Human: Bodies, Minds, Persons (2018)); as Christians (Being Christian: Baptism, Bible, Eucharist and Prayer (2014)); and as spiritual followers of Jesus (Being Disciples: Essentials of the Christian Life (2016)). Each book is under 100 pages and very easy to read, while also giving us a lot to think and talk about. I think our conversations will be stimulating and perhaps thought-provoking.

The books are widely available on Amazon and other outlets. (If you cannot afford them or if you are having trouble obtaining them, just let me know-we will get them for you.)

If you would like to participate ... or just try it out for a week or two ... call or email the office and let us know. We will send out the Zoom / dial-in information a couple of days before we start on the 14th.

New Bible Study to Begin on Wednesday, 16-September

We will begin a new Bible study group, also via Zoom (or telephone, if you prefer), on Wednesday, 16-September, from 4:30 - 5:30 (also with a little social time). We could start this journey practically anywhere, but I've chosen the Gospel according to St Mark, which is the earliest gospel and also the 'parent' of the gospels written by Matthew and Luke. Mark is succinct-often in a hurry, in fact!-and essential. As an added bonus, the gospel he wrote is the one that most of our Sunday lessons will be drawn from for the year that begins this coming Advent: You'll have an inside track!

We won't use any formal curriculum but will proceed through chapter-by-chapter. I'll provide some background and commentary, but the group will decide where and how (and how quickly) it wishes to go. Using a study Bible (like the New Oxford Annotated Bible or the Harper-Collins Study Bible) will be a help, but whatever Bible you own will suffice. (We will use the NRSV translation.)

Again, if you would like to participate ... or just try it out for a week or two ... call or email the office and let us know. We will send out the Zoom / dial-in information a couple of days before we start on the 16th.

Anti-Racism Study Group Is Forming

The Episcopal Church in Connecticut has, very trenchantly, been speaking of the twin pandemics we have been confronting in the U.S. this year: COVID-19 and structural racism. There is little, beyond prayer, that we can do as a body of believers to affect the former, but there is a lot in scripture, our tradition and our culture that we can and should explore concerning the latter.

I'd like to bring an informal group together to start doing some of that exploration, again via Zoom (and/or telephone). I do not have a set plan for how we will proceed: Maybe we will read some books ... or watch a film or two ... or hear from experts or eyewitnesses or organizers or our neighbors ... or some of each ... or none of the above. The hardest, and most productive, step is simply to begin engaging with a topic very few of us know much about and very many of us feel quite uncomfortable with.

If you would like to ponder, discern, learn and reflect about this often unspoken but nevertheless pervasive aspect of American culture, please be in touch with me. I won't set a date for us to begin until we have a group assembled and know what time will work best for the greatest number. I do hope you will prayerfully consider joining us in this important intersection of faith, history and society.

Adding to the Prayer List

Now that he has joined us, our new provisional clergy-in-charge will be administering our prayer list. Phone or email Douglas and ask him to add names to the list, so we can offer our prayers. And please remember to let Douglas know when he may remove the name(s). Except for the names we know to keep on the Prayer List on a long term basis, we will remove names after 3 months and ask that you resubmit if the names should remain.

We remember the faithful departed during the two weeks after their deaths, and on those Sundays when you ask for their names to be included.

St Andrew's Histories

Reprints are now available for the two histories of St Andrew's:

"A Brief History of St Andrew's Church" published in 1957 which begins with the inception of the Episcopal Church in Connecticut in 1760 and documents the development of St. Andrew's through 1956.

"Half a Century: 1957 to 2009, an Anecdotal Account of St Andrew's Episcopal Church" which picks up the story of St. Andrew's through the voices of parishioners.

Copies of each of these histories are available in the narthex or by contacting Heather in the parish office. We ask that you consider a donation of $8 for each history in order to help to defray the cost of printing.

St Andrew's Garden

St. Andrew's garden maintained by Jake and Marel, has started to produce vegetables. All are welcomed to help tend the garden, get out and get some air. All produce has been given to Mariam Jones who has given it to people who normally would not get fresh veggies. Compost donated by Kent Falls Brewery.

Wednesday & Friday Evening Services

At a time when parishioners are wisely cautious about social distancing, we're reminding folks of other worship opportunities at St Andrew's.

On Wednesdays at 6:00 pm, we offer Holy Eucharist, often led by Steve Klots, who always does a homily worth showing up for. There's usually only a small number of people who attend and no group singing (or even humming!). It's just a quiet gathering of people for reflective, end-of-the-day prayer and the chance to spend a half an hour inside the church we love.

On Fridays at 5:30 pm, we offer a Meditation Service at which, usually, just a few folks gather to quietly recite three small prayers, then sit together in reflective silence for 20 minutes. It is a nice meditative way to end the week. And, at a time of separation, it's a blessing just to sit in the sacred space of the church and absorb the spirit of the place.

"We give you thanks, O God, for the gifts of your people, and for the work of many hands, which have beautified this place and furnished it for the celebration of your holy mysteries...."

--The Book of Common Prayer ("Prayer for Consecration a Church")

"For when two or three are gathered in my name, there I am with them. "

--Matthew 18:20
